Why H. S. Stout Succeeds.

Here are a few reasons why H. S. Stout has succeeded in building up the largest tailoring business in Paris:
FIRST—He recognized the fact that five years ago that the only day of big profits and small sales was past.
SECOND—He cut the price of tailor-made garments at least 40 PER CENT.
THIRD—He kept up the quality of his materials, his styles and his workmanship.
FOURTH—He always does as he advertised.

AS A RESULT.

As a result of this system he has built up a large trade that appreciates the fact that they save twenty dollars on a single suit or overcoat. "Many customers at a small profit rather than a few customers at a big profit," says H. S. Stout.
If you want credit, your high-price tailor gladly extends it, for he makes you pay dearly for it in the end.
Why not turn over a new leaf—wear the best, save money, by giving H. S. Stout a trial?
He makes the Finest Imported Suits for $30.00 AND $35.00.

A Changed View of a Changed Man.

I am completely discouraged, after trying so called specialists and different advertised remedies, I feel that I am getting worse instead of better, and have about given up hope of ever being cured of my kidney trouble.

I have changed my mind, for, after reading of the positive guarantee of Foley's Kidney Cure, as a forlorn hope I tried a bottle, and the result was so favorable that I continued its use until I had taken three bottles which effected a thorough cure, and I am a changed man.

Sold by James Kennedy, Druggist.

Yaki, The Hindoo Hypnotist.

THE Zanesville (Ohio) Recorder tells of the sensational feats performed at the Zanesville Fair last week by Prof. Elwin Boone, who is known in the Orient as Yaki, the Hindoo Hypnotist.

He performed the famous burial feat, and while blind-folded drove a carriage through the crowded streets. The Recorder tells that while Yaki was in India he was fancied by a Prince who kept him as his guest until a mis-step in royal etiquette brought him into disfavor. The Recorder says that he finally escaped by the aid of a Hindoo boy, carrying away wonderful secrets of magic and hypnotism.

Prof. Boone writes THE NEWS that he now performs the burial feat without the aid of an air pipe. He also says that he has not shared the professional reputation of "The Boones" with any partner, and will not take any one in to partnership.
